

REGIMUL POLITIC ȘI CONSTITUȚIONAL DIN ROMÂNIA

Sofia POPESCU*

Abstract:

The authoress starts from the premise that the conceptual analysis is a precondition for a successful debate.

În the first part is briefly examined the approach of the political régime characteristic of Marxian General Theory of State and Law in Romania.

Then the authoress investigates the way of treating the political régime peculiar to the works in general Theory of Law and Constitutional Law published in Romania after 1989.

În the second part of her study the authoress deals with the constitutional régime as a defining feature of Lawful State, in the light of the research conducted abroad and in Romania.

In the last part in the framework of the conceptual analysis are studied beside the concept of constitutional régime, other significant correlative concepts namely: Constitutional Lawful State, Constitutionalisation, European Constitutionalism and finally Constitutionalist culture.
